

Please investigate the Super Bowl half-time show. We have to take a stand and stop the demise of our broadcasts. I believe the artists should be fined as well as the M-TV and CBS. Someone must be held accountable. By the time the next generation arrives, people will be totally unclothed on television without any thought. The soap operas and many other shows "skirt" around the guidelines. I thank you for the trouble you are going to to save us from ourselves.
